

Questions for 2 Kings chapters 21-25:

1. Have you seen parents that are very good and godly and yet they have a child that goes totally away from what is godly and good? Have you seen parents that were ungodly and very wayward and yet they had a child that was very good and godly? How do you think this happens?

2. How many generations does it take to turn things around in a nation? Does that give you hope or concern?

3. There were two kings of Judah who began to reign at a very young age. Who are they? What other major accomplishment do they have in common?

4. Is there anything in your heart or life that needs cleaning up and refurbishing? (You might need to ask God to show you that.)

5. Of all the kings we have studied, which ones stand out most in your mind and why?

6. What is your main takeaway from the books of 1 & 2 Kings?
