

Deuteronomy 18-26

Deut 18

What is significant regarding the statement “I fell down before the Lord”

(Deut. 9:18)

Deut 19-21

Discuss “fair and equal” punishment under the law...then and now.

Deut 22-24

See application in practice pertaining to God’s spoken laws, vows and consequences. Also, the protections in place for women’s bodies and honor.

Deut 25-26

Share the difference between God’s commands written on stone in the Old Testament and the commandments and vows written on our hearts through the Holy Spirit in the New Testament.

Reflection:

Are we guilty of bending the rules to fit our narrative and not that of God?

How can we stay on track every day by trusting in God and His son Jesus?
