Reflection:

List the characteristics of God you see in these chapters:

All that we have is a good gift from God. What are the potential pitfalls of prosperity and pride in your life? How do you guard against these?

What are the dangers of Christians quarrelling with other Christians today? How can you implement Abram's example?

Who are your 'trained' people you can mobilize in your life? Is 'training' others a priority to you?

Think about times in your life that you messed up so big that you questioned if God could possibly forgive you, much less protect you, or use you for His good anymore. How was He faithful?
