

Job Chapters 15-31 Group Questions:

1. Job's friends wanted to offer him their advice and point out what he had done wrong. Do we tend to do that? Has that ever happened to you? What would be a better approach in dealing with a friend who is suffering?

2. Have you ever had to defend your innocence? How did that make you feel?

3. If your friend's suffering was self-inflicted due to sin or poor decisions/actions, then what do you say/do?

4. Do you have a daily quiet time where you spend with God in His Word and prayer? Do you have a special time and place where you meet with God or how does that "look like" for you?
