

Judges 1-5

Discuss the importance of “one nation under God” and the many real consequences of not putting God first in everything.

Israel continues to sin throughout Judges. There is a pattern of lack of obedience to God’s commands. Share how God continues to forgive and deliver His chosen. Hope.

There are many heroes that step up in this book. Are we heroes and warriors for God? How can we pass on our Biblical knowledge to future generations?

The book of Judges spans over 300 years. God’s deliverance throughout demonstrates His faithfulness in love and mercy toward His people.

Reflect on Christ as our hero sent to be our Judge and deliverer. Discuss how our modern-day earthly heroes can dilute our focus.

God placed Deborah in charge of vast armies and in key leadership roles. What characteristics made her successful?
