

Nehemiah Discussion Questions:

1. List the good qualities you see in Nehemiah.
2. Is there one of these qualities that you could use an extra-helping of?
3. Nehemiah prayed long prayers and little, short prayers. Do you utilize both types of prayers? Is there a need for both in our lives?
4. Discuss how decision-making ability differentiates between poor and good leaders and between good and great leaders. We all make many decisions daily. Some are small and others can be life-altering. How do the patterns established by the small decisions shape the course of the larger ones?
5. Identify a couple of the best decisions you've made.
6. Now identify a couple of the worst decisions you have ever made. Do you tend to revisit them and imagine how things might have been different if you had decided differently?
7. What is your main takeaway from the books of Ezra and Nehemiah?