

Proverbs 6-15 discussion questions:

1. Did anyone journal or read through last week's Proverbs? Were you able to find any scriptures there to pray? Would anyone like to share?
2. Do you treasure God's commandments? (7:1) What does it mean to write them on the tablet of your heart? What does that look like for you?
3. Define the Antithetical Parallelism and then diagram this proverb:
Blessings are on the head of the righteous,
But violence covers the mouth of the wicked. (Haha! Just kidding! Gotcha!)
4. Did you realize you were going to hear so much about the mouth today? Proverbs has a lot to say about it. How can our words destroy others? How have words hurt you in the past?
5. How can our words be a fountain of life to our families? Give real life examples of you encouraging your family. Also give an example of someone speaking life into you.
6. Who is someone in your life that could really use some encouraging words today or this week? Will you commit to speaking life and love into them this week?
7. How can you speak life and encouragement even into the lives of strangers?
