

Discussion Questions for 1 Corinthians 15 & 16

As we finished chapter 15 today, did you learn anything new about the resurrection of our bodies? If so, what?

Does talk of death and resurrection bring you hope or fear?

Chapter 15 ends with this great encouragement. How does it make you feel?
15:58 THEREFORE, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.

Chapter 16

What was the purpose of the collection Paul refers to in verses 1-4? How can this be applied today?

Explain 16:13-14 in your own words. Why does this need to be stated?
(Can you firmly stand in something you don't deeply believe/understand? In what ways courageous? Are you able to be strong in and of yourself? Why is love non-negotiable?)

Paul spoke (wrote) tough words to the Corinthians, sometimes we're tempted to just give up on a person or a situation and start over rather than saying the hard words and/or doing the hard work – why is it worth it? What is at stake?

1 Corinthians dove deep into several key areas of Christian life, looking back on the book as a whole, please journal or discuss your deeper understanding on these topics:

Church Divisions:

Immorality:

Christian Freedom: Stumbling block or Stepping Stone?

Spiritual Gifts:

Love:

Worship:

Resurrection: