

Romans Chapter 6:

Comprehension: (In other words, what does it say?)

What are the main themes in this chapter?

Interpretation: (In other words, what does it mean?)

What does Paul mean when he writes that baptism equates to a baptism into Jesus' death?

How do you die to sin? What does that mean?

What does it mean to be a slave to righteousness?

According to Paul, should committing your life to Christ be a subtle change or a radical change from your pre-Christian life? How?

Application: (In other words, how do I apply this to my life?)

Verse 13 isn't a suggestion, rather a command. In what ways do you offer yourself to God as a servant of righteousness?

Is your life in line with your profession of faith (actions, relationships, money, words) or have you just added a 'religious aspect' to your routine?

What is the main thing you learned about God from this chapter? What is the main thing you learned about yourself from this chapter?
